

Ms. Norenberg's 100th Day Update

Last Friday was the 100th Day of School! To celebrate, our class decided to write 100 notes of kindness to others in the school. It was so wonderful to spread kindness all around us! We also set the goal of reading 100 books as a class. It took us three days but we did it! Here are some responses to a "Finish the Sentence" activity we did using the number 100!

If I had $100 I would...

Buy videogames. –Richard
Give it to my Mom. –Torsten
Give it to the poor so I wouldn't get greedy. –Sarah
Buy Mike & Ikes, jelly, and videogames. -Max
Buy 1,000 Shopkins. -Infinity Ann
Get my Grandma some glasses. –Emily
I would buy games. –Mason
Rent a school. –Brailee
Buy all candy and toys. -Kayori

In the last 100 days I have learned...

Division and how to draw arrays. –Peyton
5 X 5=25 –Infinity Ann
To be kind. -Max
I learned to do cursive. –Emily
To always be kind. –Bobby
Lots of math. –Kayori

In our last 100 days I have loved...

Doing Science. –Richard
Getting to play together. –Bobby
To do cursive. –Samson
Having a teacher! –Max
Meeting y'all. –Mason
Doing kind stuff. –Brailee

When I am 100 years old I hope to...

Still ride a dirt bike. –Peyton
I would still do cartwheels. –Emily
Take a walk. –Bobby
Still play videogames! –Max
To be able to walk. –Mason

If I could travel back in time 100 years, I would...

Help with the technology. –Torsten
Want to meet my great, great Grandpa and Grandma. -Peyton
Show off my clothes from the future. –Sarah
See my family. –Infinity Ann
Want to see old western times. –Samson

In our last 70 days I would like to...

Finish our Kindness Squad missions. –Sarah
Go on a field trip. –Samson
Do more kindness. –Brailee
Learn all we can. -Kayori
Learn more Science. -Richard