Mrs. King's Class

Here is what we are up to...

Today's Date:
December 4th, 2017

Dates to Remember:

December 7th

Christmas program

Students arrive @ 5:45

December 22nd

No School

End of Second Quarter

December 22nd-

January 7th

Winter break

- In reading groups students will practice adding -ing and -ed to the end of a word. We will also be reviewing th, ch, wh, ph sounds.
- Students made Proper Noun Pizza, to show and understand examples of proper nouns.
- We completed an author study on Eric Carle. We read several of his books and watched a video of how he painted his tissue paper which he used to make his pictures. The students then had the opportunity to make their own Eric Carle paper and turn it into an animal of their choice.
- As a class we read "Pete the Cat: I Love My White Shoes." As we read the book we talked about cause and effect. Students then completed a Pete the Cat art project.

Christmas Program

Thursday, December 7th is our Primary grades winter concert. Please have your child dressed in festive colors. Our class will meet down by our classroom at 5:45pm. Program will begin at 6pm in the gym.

Content rotations

During our health, science, social studies, and computer lab rotations we will be studying Christmas around the World for the rest of December. Students will learn how other countries celebrate Christmas. This week students will explore Mexico, Hawaii, Israel, and Holland.

Please be sure to dress your students warm! Unless it is -10 degrees, they will go outside for morning and afternoon recess.

Are you smarter than a Sterling Falcon? (If returned students get a dojo point)
Discuss with your student: Give two examples of a proper noun: _____
_____
_____

Name: _____

A note from Mrs. King!

Thank you to all the families who came and celebrated family day with us on November 22nd. It was a lot of fun to see students interacting with their families. I really hope you had a nice time at lunch and participating in Bingo.

Happy Holidays, Mrs. King
