Look Who's Learning!

Thanks PTA for hosting our carnival! It was a huge success!

Please Save and Send:

Valentine Exchange: On Wednesday, February 14th our class will be exchanging valentines. If your child would like to bring valentines to exchange they must bring enough for each child in our class. (A class list is on the back on the newsletter.) This is a great handwriting activity for children! Please practice writing names with a capital letter and ending with lowercase letters.

Baggie Books!: We had many students return their baggie book the past few weeks! Each time students return their books they get a sticker to put on our 100 chart, when the chart is full we will have a class pizza party! So, keep reading and returning your books!!

Homework- Due Feb. 28th!

Are you ready for a challenge card yet? Ask Ms. Duval when you have completed 8 homework tasks!

This week we are studying:

Topic: Valentine's Day

Math: K: Review Subtraction

1: Subtraction Strategies Cont.

Handwriting: g, u, magic c letter review

Spelling: Long A words: day, say, play, stay, mail, rain, plain, grain, cute, use

Families Make A Difference

Parent Teacher Conferences: A special thank you to those of you who took time to come to conferences! It was great to meet with you!

Random Acts of Kindness Week: This week Sterling Elementary will be participating in RAK week. Every afternoon we will be stopping everything to write all the Random Acts of Kindness that we saw or did! Please ask your child what kindness they wrote about each day!

Sight Words: I hope you are having fun practicing your sight word cards at home. ☺ These are not words to sound out, but rather, words we want students to know automatically, within 3 seconds. Sight words are frequently used and often can't be sounded out. I will be checking students for mastery of these words each Friday.
