Today's Date:
March 26th, 2018

Dates to Remember:

March 30th

Field trip to Sealife Center

Bring your cold lunch!

April 2nd

Quarter 3 report cards
come home

April 6th

Falcon Fun Night

April 20th

No School!

Language Arts

- In our reading groups we are continuing to practice how to decode words so students can recognize spelling patterns while reading.
- We have been reading a lot of great non-fiction stories and discussing author's purpose.
- Students are continuing to work on fluency in their reading. I am seeing huge improvements. Keep up the great work at home!
- In writing, students are working on a research project. We are studying different animals we hope to see at the Sealife center.

Math

Students are working their way through volume 2 of our MyMath curriculum. Students will be covering measurement, graphing, 2-D and 3-D shapes!

Baggie Books

Our class is one week away from earning a pizza party for reading 100 baggie books! Be sure to return your baggie book this Thursday so we can celebrate next week!

Keep up the great work reading at home, it makes a huge difference!

Don't forget!

Field trip to the Sealife Center

on Friday!
Please be to school 8:10-8:20am, we will be leaving on the bus at 8:35am.

Are you smarter than a Sterling Falcon? (If returned students get a treat)

Discuss with your student: Abraham Lincoln is on what coin?

A note from Mrs. King!

There are no conferences for the rest of the year. After reviewing your child's report card, please let me know if you have any questions or concerns. If you would like to meet and discuss the report card or talk about your child's progress, please let me know. I would be happy to meet with you before or after school.

Thank you!
